OWNER WILL SELL ATTRACTIVE In coming to pass. Operations in textile industries are being conducted on a restricted scale, while in the East, too, tanneries are operating only about two-thirds of their capacity. Moreover, trades in various cities are unsettled by strikes. Pig iron appears to be in improved demand at most centres, and some points speak of a new buying movement within a short time. But current prices are lower, and in finished lines of steel specifications run considerably under shipments, while new business is relatively light. Copper is darf and somewhat light.
